VOL. XXXI.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, MARCH 27, 1903. 8 A. M.

NO. 8

Henry M. Bosworth, of Lexington.

The above is a fair likeness of Mr. Henry M. Bosworth, Kentucky's next treasurer. This splendid democrat made Fayette county the best sheriff she ever had and we have every reason to believe that he will fill the office of treasurer as well. We speak of him as the next state treasurer because we believe that he is going to win the nomination, for he has friends in every portion of this grand old Commonwealth who will see that he comes under the strong first in the primary of May 9. There is no better democrat nor finer gentleman in the state than Mr. Bosworth and that he would make an admirable treasurer, none who know him will doubt. Following are extracts written by gentlemen who know Mr. Bosworth. Read them and you will get a pretty good idea of the kind of man he is:

It is a pleasure for us to bring before the public the name of such a noble democrat as Henry Bosworth, of Lexington, Fayette county, as a candidate for the office of State treasurer. He is a democratic son of the old school and should be favored with the nomination. He asks the voters to consider his candidacy in the primary election on May 9, this year. Mr. Bosworth is a lion hearted democrat and is a brave and fearless as they make them. He has always been in the democratic ranks and always at the front in battle. He is the ex sheriff of Fayette county and was an intimate friend of the late Wm. Goebel and was always selected by Goebel as his lieutenant in the time of trouble in the democratic ranks.

When Gov. Goebel fell he looked at his beloved leader—tears streaming from his eyes, then with the same determination that always characterizes him as a man of power and decision he began to hunt for the assassins of the "noble dead."

These were "times that tried men's souls"—when to be an active, aggressive democrat in and around Frankfort meant to walk in constant peril of the assassin's deadly bullet. Mr. Bosworth was a man for the time and when the arch conspirator, Caleb Powers, had studied the officers at Frankfort and was fleeing to the mountains (where he would have forever been safe as is his brother John)—it was then that the sheriff at the head of his deputies marched into the car and in the face of assassins, protectors of assassins and what seemed certain death, dragged Powers and Capt. Davis out and landed them in the Fayette county jail—thus making the arrest of the arch-bend and instigator of the darkest and most dastardly conspiracy of which American history holds on record. For these arrests he was offered $1,500, which he refused and answered: "I only regret that I can not and have not done more to avenge the death of my friend and the friend of the people. Such acts as these are rare and make men heroes."

Mr. Bosworth is a man of high moral character, integrity and intellect and one of the brightest men in the State. He has a record that is far above reproach and he modestly asks the voters to nominate him as their State treasurer and the Courier predicts that they will make no mistake in choosing him.—Frankfort Courier

Henry M. Bosworth, of Fayette county, better known as "Genial Henry," is a candidate for the office of State Treasurer, subject to the action of the State democratic primary May 9th, 1903, and if true merit, unquestioned ability and unwavering loyalty to Democratic principles count for anything, then he should receive an overwhelming majority. Though an active worker in the Democratic party since he reached his majority, Mr. Bosworth has never held office but once. He was elected Sheriff of Fayette county in 1897 when the democratic ticket was opposed by a fusion ticket, resulting in one of the fiercest political battles ever waged in the State of Kentucky. During his term of office as sheriff, Mr. Bosworth, assisted by a most efficient set of deputies, performed the duties devolving upon him with signal abilities and marked success. At all times courteous and affable, yet uncompromising when it came to the protection of the people's interest, and collection and disbursement of the public money.

With an unblemished record as officer, faithful under all circumstances to the democratic party, its platform and its nominees, loyal to his friends even unto a fault, we cannot see how any democrat could hesitate not only to vote for—but to use his influence for Henry M. Bosworth for the office of State Treasurer.—Lexington Daily Democrat

OTTENHEIM.

Mrs. J. Hugh Spratt had a good milk cow to die.

Jack Frost made his appearance to the dismay of the fruit growers.

HUSTONVILLE.

We are glad to report that grippe is disappearing from our community and the parties reported ill from it in our last are convalescing with the exception of Mrs. Sam Reid, whose condition is unimproved. Mr. Leslie Reid is at home to remain during his mother's illness.

J. W. Lockridge & Co., are moving one of their mills from near Merrimac to Cumberland Falls Station, where they have a crew of 25 or 30 men working on their 1,000 acres of fine timber, tributary to that station. They have a contract for one million slaves at prosperity prices and are hustling early and late to secure a premium for early delivery.

Miss Anna Reid has returned from a delightful 10-days' visit to friends and relatives in Louisville. Miss Alice Drye, the artistic builder of up-to-the-minute millinery, formerly of our city, but now of Lebanon, spent several days with relatives here this week. D. J. Newburn has gone to Columbus, Miss., in the interest of his nursery company. He will return in time to accommodate the trade in Central Kentucky.

The Anderson & Lane Vaudeville Combination is billed for Aloron's Opera House Friday and Saturday nights. Friday for the whites and Saturday night for Negroes. Their program is lengthy and diversified. The curtain rises on a series of star vaudeville acts by eccentric comedy comedians, intermingled with all the latest musical bits and dialect artists, whose clever renditions attract your undivided attention, and all at popular prices.

James Frye sold A. B. McKinney 77 ewes and lambs at $4.50 and Thompson, of Boyle, four sows and pigs for $108 and a plug horse for $50. James Frye shipped a car of hogs to Cincinnati Saturday. John Allen bought a nice pony and cart for about $50. George Alford bought a nice gelding for $175. Lyon & Myers sold Jordan six good Southern horses at $85 to $100. Josiah Blashop sold same party three for $355. Doc Drye has arrived from Pulaski with 14 high class Southern horses that need only the finishing touches of Doc's handiwork to top notchers. This lot is the cream of Pulaski's stock and a great deal of time and care was spent in collecting them.

By special invitation, for which we are grateful, the writer was shown a portion of the imported millinery to be on exhibition at the Charles Wheeler Emporium April 9 and 10. To say that there are some of the most beautiful creations of the milliner's art and in exclusive styles that cannot and others that will not be duplicated, that was ever exhibited in our city, is putting the plain facts mildly. France, the fashion plate for the world, is undeniably our friend and has evidenced her friendship not alone in the entanglement of the Venezuelan affair, but also in showing us favor over other nations in consignments of her most attractive millinery to adorn the handsome belles not only of Kentucky but even those of dear old Lincoln.

The Finch Club met with Miss Pearl Rout Friday evening. Miss Lena Yowell is visiting friends in Bradfordville. A. B. C. Dinwiddie was at home from his store at Bradfordville. Miss Maud Van Arsdale is in Harrodsburg for a few days visiting friends. Misses Stagg and Cabell spent a few days with relatives in Liberty. Miss Francis Adams, of Danville, is visiting the Misses Newburn. Miss Elizabeth Phillips, of Liberty, is the guest of Mrs. Wm. Myers. Miss Nell Adams has returned to Danville after spending a few days here. Mr. Casey Allen and family, of Harrodsburg, are visiting C. H. Van Arsdale. Roy Rose leaves next week for Oklahoma City, which place will be his future home if the business is as flourishing as he expects to find it.

A Minnesota Negro revealed to Congressman Tawney what he declared were the details of a plot to kidnap Secretary of War Root, Secretary of the Treasury Shaw and Attorney General Knox. He refused to name the conspirators or give the source of his information.

It Saved His Leg.

P. A. Danforth, of LaGrange, Ga., suffered for six months with a frightful running sore on his leg; but writes that Buck's Arnica Salve wholly cured it in five days. For Ulcers, Wounds, Piles, it is the best salve in the world. Curo guaranteed. Only 25c. Sold by all druggists.

Moses Fowler Chase, the missing grandson of the late Moses Fowler, and the heir to millions, has been found. Consul General Gowdy found the young man in an asylum at Paris. He is incurably insane.

Nearly all of Lexington's streets are well nigh impassable and one particular place is not even Jackassable, says the Lexington Democrat.

Edwin Dow, a Massachusetts man, has returned to remarry his wife of forty years ago, who in the meantime had married again and been left a widow.

Immediately after being married to Mrs. Mary Harmon, at Bowling Green, and while he was receiving congratulations, Robert Winscott was stricken with paralysis and died.

At a mass meeting of the Republicans of Raccoon precinct, Laurel county, resolutions were adopted denouncing the administration of County Judge B. G. Reams and requesting his immediate resignation. The offense Judge Reams is alleged by the grand jury report to have committed was ordering the payment of county funds to the hands of the Sheriff to his brother in law and the County Attorney without authority from the Fiscal Court. Reams was elected County Judge on the Republican ticket by a majority of 500.

Tragedy Averted.

"Just in the nick of time our little boy was saved," writes Mrs. Watkins, of Pleasant City, Ohio. "I'm a widow of the Preachersville section, died of small-pox in Indianapolis and her husband is now down with the loathsome disease. Doctors treated him but he grew worse every day. At length we tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and our darling was saved. He is now sound and well." Everybody ought to know, it's the only sure cure for cough, colds and all lung diseases. Guaranteed by all druggists. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottles free.

TEARS OF Grief.—Mrs. Watson, of the Mt. Salem section, died of small-pox on Saturday evening. She was 75 years of age and the widow of the late Robert Gray. J. W. Little has bought of M. J. Farris, the house and lot on Lexington street, known as the Stodghill place, for $3,500.

Major William Goodloe died in his rooms on Main street after a short illness of pneumonia. F. B. Tillman, a colored barber, was tried in County Court, and held over to Circuit Court, in $200 bond. The charge against him is false swearing. Richard Mitchell, son of W. E. Mitchell, who resides on the Pleasant Hill pile, near town, died of rheumatism of the heart.—Advocate.

COL. NALL WILL NOT RUN.
Says His Information From Farming Element All Over the State

Is That Hubert Vreeland Will Be Nominated By Big Vote For Commissioner of Agriculture.

Col. Ion B. Nall, State Commissioner of Agriculture, who for thirty years has been one of the foremost agriculturists in the State, and who is conceded to be one of the most thoroughly posted men as to farming interests in Kentucky, has announced to his friends that at the expiration of his present term of office he will return to his old home to live. Under the Constitution he is not eligible for re-election, and will return to private life. Col. Nall has organized more farmers' institutes than any other Commissioner the State ever had, and he has been one of the leaders in the good roads movement.

Col. Nall, in an interview last week, said he was taking no active part in the election of his successor, as that was a duty which developed upon the Democratic farmers of the State, but when asked for his opinion on the race he said he personally was going to vote for Hubert Vreeland because he believed him to be not only the best qualified, but by far a more aggressive man than the others, and by reason of his experience as assistant in charge of the office would not have to consume his time learning the routine, and would be in a better position next winter to secure favorable legislation for the farmer such as good roads and many other things that are needed, with all of which he is thoroughly conversant.

Col. Nall said that from what he could hear from the farmers and others with whom he came in contact, there was not the slightest doubt in his mind about the nomination of Mr. Vreeland by one of the largest majorities that would be received in any of the races for State offices.

CONUNDRUMS.

What table hasn't a leg to stand on? Multiplication table.

Why is a lady embraced, like a pocket-book? She is clasped.

Why is your eye like a man being whipped? He is under the lash.

What is the riddle of riddles? Life, because we all must give it up.

Why does a calf wag its tail? Because he wants to.

Why should a girl be well stamped? If she isn't the males won't take her.

Which is the most ancient of trees? The elder tree.

Why is a dinner on board a steamship like Easter day? Because it is a movable feast.

What trade would you mention to a short boy? Grow sir. (grocer.)

Why is a plum cake like the ocean? Because it contains so many currents.

Why is a city in Ireland likely to be the largest city in the world? Because each year it is Dublin (doubling.)

What grows bigger as you contract it? Debt.

Why is it the happiest of woes? Because it is in the midst of woes.

Why is 1860 like 1802? Because the one is 1860 and the other is 180 (2) too.

Send $5 for a year's subscription or $3 for six months and you will receive one, postage prepaid. It is the most complete map and chart we have ever seen.

More Riots.

Disturbances of strikers are not nearly as grave as an individual disorder of the system. Overwork, loss of sleep, nervous tension will be followed by utter collapse unless a reliable remedy is immediately employed. There's nothing so efficient to cure disorders of the Liver or Kidneys as Electro Bitters. It's a wonderful tonic, and all effective nerve and the greatest all around medicine for run down systems. It dispels Nervousness, Rheumatism and Neuralgia and expels Malaria germs. Only 50c and satisfaction guaranteed by all druggists.

SEVERE ATTACK OF GRIP.
Cured By One Bottle Of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"When I had an attack of grip last winter (the second one) I actually cured myself with one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says Frank W. Perry, editor of the Enterprise, Shortsville, N. Y. "This is the honest truth. I at times kept from coughing myself to pieces by taking a teaspoonful of this remedy, and when the coughing spell would come on at night I would take a dose and it seemed that in the briefest interval the cough would pass off and I would go to sleep perfectly free from cough and its accompanying pains. To say that the remedy acted as a most agreeable surprise is putting it mildly. I had no idea that it would or could knock out the grip, simply because I had never tried it for such a purpose, but it did, and it seemed with the second attack of coughing the remedy caused it to not be of less duration, but the pains were far less severe and I had not used the contents of one bottle before Mr. Grip bid me adieu." For sale by Craig & Hockley.

Paradoxical as it may appear, 1,800 barkeepers and saloon men of Jersey City have formed a "Barkeepers' Temperance Union," and the members pledge themselves not to drink any of the liquors which they sell. If any class of men know the evils of whisky drinking it is the barkeepers. They see the seamy side of it, the folly of it, the sin of it, the shame of it and the crime of it. The barkeeper stands face to face daily with men of fine intellect and splendid accomplishment and who are fitted to shine with a steady effulgence on the higher plane, rendered maudlin, garrulously silly or gravely idiotic by drink. They see how the term "good fellowship" is prostituted and interpreted to men getting each other drunk; and how men of parts indulge in loquacious and unbecoming insolence or who are demonized and rendered insane by intoxication; and if a great disgust can be produced by anything, this will produce it. The Barkeepers' Temperance Union is therefore not unreasonable.

Working Overtime.
